NEWS FROM ROUND ABOUT

ST. EDWARD.

From the Advance:
Mrs. G. L. McKelvey, of Columbus, arrived yesterday on a visit to St. Edward relatives and friends.

Word comes that Mrs. George Horn successfully underwent an operation at Columbus last week and is now rapidly on the road to recovery.

W. C. Sutton suffered another paralytic stroke Wednesday and is now lying in a very critical condition with very small hope of his recovery.

Mrs. William Rengler and daughter, Miss Mildred Rengler, returned home Tuesday from a ten days visit to Columbus relatives and friends.

Miss Fannie Brittle left yesterday for Columbus after a week's visit to Dr. and Mrs. C. Brittle. She will visit among old-time friends in Columbus for a few days before returning to her home at Wayne.

GENOA.

From the Leader:
Peter Peterson from Chicago, and Charles Peterson from Wyoming both arrived in the city the last of the week to visit their Nance and Platte county relatives.

O. E. Green shipped fourteen head of his thoroughbred white-face cattle Tuesday to the Iowa state fair at Des Moines. From there they will be sent to the state fair at Lincoln, and from there to South Dakota, and then to Sioux City, finishing the circuit at St. Joseph, Missouri. There are some dandies in the bunch and O. E. ought to bring home a whole bunch of ribbons, and here's hoping he does.

The Leader man followed the crowd and took in the chautauqua at Fullerton Sunday and enjoyed ourselves hugely except that midnight ride home. Now while the Leader takes a good many pokes at our county seat, most of them in a josh, we want to say in regard to their chautauqua, that the business men of that town exhibit a spirit of enterprise, energy and progressiveness rarely found in any town of any section or size. That is one thing they all get behind and push, and now if they will get behind the scheme to purchase and park the grounds and push equally as hard they will have built a monument to their public spirit as lasting as time.

News of a surprising character comes from over at Clark. We learn that Hugh Lockard, who is running a meat market at that place, has been arrested accused for receiving stolen cattle. It is charged that Hugh has been buying cattle and hogs from a couple worthless cusses over in that country, who never possessed money sufficient to buy a sucking pig, and that he bought them for about half price, knowing that they were stolen. He finally refused to allow them only $25 for three cattle and one of them squealed. This is the report as it comes to us, but it is hard for Hugh's Nance county friends to believe this to be the truth in the matter, and are with holding judgement for further developments.

PLATTE CENTER.

From the Signal:
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blessen, 6 miles northeast of town, a 12 pound boy on Tuesday, August 22.

Miss Margaret Regan left last Saturday for several days visit with friends in Omaha. From there she will visit her brother, John G. and family at Adell, Iowa, before returning home.

Mrs. Clint Wilber arrived here Monday from Foster, Neb. She says Clint has been transferred from Foster, where he has charged of the Edward Bradford Co's lumber yard, to New Castle, Neb. New Castle is a town of 700 inhabitants, and is about 35 miles from Sioux City. Mrs. Wilber will remain here until a house in which to live can be found in New Castle.

Will Mylet has suddenly blossomed into a base ball promoter. Several games have been played in the pasture near his barn, between various teams. Last Sunday there was a very exciting game between the Tarnov boys and Mylet's Stars, in which the Stars "twinkled" six times to the visitors' 5. Saturday afternoon the Y. M. C. A. team of Columbus will come up and give the Stars a tussle on the diamond in town.

Platte Center's watering spot is doomed. For years the well standing on lots on which Diers Bros. store is being built has been used by the public when anyone wanted a drink of the "best water in town" they visited the "Bloodorn well." Summer and winter it was visited by all; it was carried to all business houses in buckets; many house-keepers used it in their homes; the stranger in search of a cool drink was directed to that spot; it has nearly saved the lives of many, because it was so handy "the next morning after the night before." But it is no more for public use.

The people of this village were unpleasantly surprised and shocked last Friday when the news was spread around that Mrs. P. F. Doody had died at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. W. Perkins. She had been in failing health a number of years and had come here from her home in Cheyenne just eleven days prior to her death in the hope that the change would be beneficial. Although she had been in poor health for years her death, which was caused from heart trouble, was unexpected. Her husband and two eldest sons were unable to reach here until the following day. Mrs. Doody, whose maiden name was Mary Whalen, was born in Ireland April 6, 1868. She immigrated to this country in 1883 and settled in Illinois, where she remained until 1885 when she came to Platte county. She was united in marriage to P. F. Doody June 17, 1889. They continued to make Platte county their home until 1897, when they moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming, where they have since resided. Her husband and four children are left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother. William, Charles, Kattie and John are the names of the children. The funeral occurred Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from St. Joseph's church, Rev. Cyria conducting the services.

Miss Sharrar returned to her home in Omaha on Tuesday. Her cousin, Hazel Sharrar, accompanied her, returning home Wednesday evening.

Word received from Mrs. B. A. Fye who is in the Clarkson Memorial hospital in Omaha, is to the effect that she is improving, and she expects the treatment will be of great benefit to her.

Rev. A. T. Carpenter and son Lloyd of Crawford, arrived Friday evening for a visit with their son and brother Leon Carpenter, at this place. Rev. Carpenter returned home Saturday, Lloyd remaining here for a week's visit.

Henry Kemper, agent for the C. N. W. at this place, is taking a couple of weeks vacation. He left on Wednesday for Omaha where he will have his artificial foot repaired. He will also go to Crete to attend matters regarding his father's estate.

Creston defeated Madison last Sunday on the Creston diamond by a score of 2 to 1. Lueschen for Creston did great work in the pitcher's box, while Bilon of Madison was also at his best. Taken in all, it was the fastest game seen here this season.

Judge T. D. Robinson has filed an acceptance of the republican nomination for the office of county judge. A large number of republicans in Platte county wrote the name of T. D. Robinson on the republican primary ballot—27 of them in Creston township, and although his name appeared with three other candidates on the democratic primary ballot, he received more democratic votes in Creston township than the other three candidates combined.

Miss Isabelle Willis left for her home in Parker, South Dakota, last Monday morning, after a two weeks' visit with friends in and around Bellwood. Miss Willis will take up school work in Dakota next month, but thinks here are no better people and school children in all the land than she had found in Bellwood.

Ray Closson went out riding Tuesday evening. When he got in front of J. M. Sauer's store his horse became frightened at the Kempton Co's hand making a jump, knocked down and the wheels ran over little Howard Mishler. One of his fingers was considerably bruised. His legs were also bruised and his neck scratched a little. He was taken to Dr. Fiedman's office and the doctor thinks he will be alright in a day or two.

Sunday before last Sam Richenbaugh of Rising, while out pleasure riding in his auto, collided with Justice Lamunyon who was riding a motorcycle. Mr. Lamunyon crashed broadside into the auto. He was thrown clear over the car and landed on the other side. He was not seriously injured but received an ugly gash in his hand and a sprained ankle. The front of the motorcycle was smashed to pieces and the car was damaged to such an extent that it had to be pulled in.—Rising Ind.

As a result of the trouble which emanated from the carnival company which was in town during the firemen's tournament, and which has been more or less the talk of the town ever since, the entire town board of Humphrey has been cited to appear before Governor Aldrich on Friday, September 1st to show cause why the whole board should not be kicked bodily out of office, or words to that effect. The complaint which is signed by Dr. Condon, Chas. Schuth, R. P. Drake, Fred Van Ackeren and Geo. Eisenmenger, directly charges that the board refused to do its duty while the carnival company was in town, as to suppressing immorality. Speaking for the editor of the Democrat, who, unfortunately, has been trying to serve the people as a member of the town board for a few years, we will say that he would gladly yield his position to some other good citizen under ordinary circumstances, but he does not appreciate the idea of being kicked off the board in order to make room for some body else, and we are of the belief that the other members of the board share this same opinion, so we are all going down to Lincoln next Friday to see who is who. And inasmuch as we are a great believer in advertising, we cannot help but think it is alright because Humphrey will surely be well advertised, however undesirable the advertising may be.
